HISTORIC MONUMENTS

Founded back nearly 1,000 years, Marrakech has a story out of the ordinary, which it still retains a rich cultural heritage.

As historic heart of the city, the medina of Marrakech concentrates within it the monuments that will delight lovers of history and architecture. In the narrow streets, according to the various souks, discover the Ben Youssef Madrasa or Koubba Almoravid.

Not far from the Jemaa El Fna stands the Koutoubia Mosque, adjoined its famous minaret. More than a simple neighborhood architectural element, this set has become the symbol of Marrakech.

In of the Kasbah and the Mellah, are the palace have followed the various rulers of the city and the kingdom. You will have the opportunity to discover the Badii Palace, of which only the remains, and the Bahia Palace, a true masterpiece and stooges of Moroccan craftsmanship. Finally, the Saadian Tombs Travel back in this great dynasty.

MUSEUMS

In addition to its inescapable monuments, Marrakech also offers the opportunity to the visitor to stroll between its museums with multiple and varied collections. Different faces of Marrakech and Morocco can thus be seen. Traditional and popular art is widely represented at the Dar Si Said Museum, the Marrakech House of Photography and the Bert Flint Museum. However, lovers of contemporary art will not be outdone: The Museum of Marrakech, already known for the wealth of its collections of ancient objects focuses on other expressions of Moroccan art by setting value of contemporary artists. The Museum of the Art of Living and the Dar Bellarj Foundation will allow you to discover and share their activities and exhibitions of a vibrant and dynamic culture.

What To do in Marrakech

HAMMAM AND SPA

The SPA

SPAs in Marrakech are unique in their decoration combining traditional and modernism, as well as the professionalism and know-how of its team and which provides you with adequate care to your desires and wishes. In search of a moment of serenity, alone, in couple or with friends, the spa will be more indicated. A high quality service and spread from mineral salts, massages with essential oils to scrub. Establishments whose breath taking sceneries compete with the exceptional quality of the treatments practiced, will make you live an unforgettable moment !

The HAMMAMS

Want to take a step back and access a world of pleasure, to treat through the ablutions of gentleness? the Baths or hammams of Marrakech open the doors for an escape to the happiness associated with a refined and discreet delicacy. The hammams are public baths where, since the dawn of time, they come mainly to wash them selves, but also to relax and discuss. Present in every quarter of Marrakech, you will necessarily see the entrance of a hammam during your strolls in the city. If you pay attention to them, you will observe that they are generally located near a mosque, offering a purification to the body before prayer. Hammams are dedicated to men and other women, but it is also the case that the same place hosts openings, women and men. Your hotel or riad may offer you the opportunity to experience this ritual, but if it does not, join the local population in one of the many traditional hammams scattered around. To benefit also from the benefits of these hot baths, have tongues, black soap, horsehair glove and ghassoul, a traditional shampoo based on clay. If you have not had time to get supplies in the souks, these products are also distributed by the hammams.

RESTAURANTS

-Dinner Spectacle Fantasia at Ali : for an evening like the Thousand and One Nights where more than 200 artists represent the Moroccan Folklore (Arabic and Berber) ending, with dignity, by a Fantasia show exposed by acrobats on their horses with shooting rifles.

-Dar Cherifa : Between two exhibitions or two concerts, its décor is both simple and refined reminiscent of that of the Ben Youssef Madrasa which she is contemporary is ideal to enjoy some delicacies in a serene atmosphere, far from the bustle of the souks yet all relatives. Everyone who knows the house says it distills a rare scent of peace and serenity.

- Dar Zellij : Of all the houses that Marrakech Riads restores for almost 20 years, Dar Zellij is one of the most remarkable. We turned it into a gourmet restaurant to share with you during a stay in Marrakech all the splendor of Moroccan gastronomy
